

Be a Member

Your Open for Business Oklahoma membership is an investment in Oklahoma. When you become a member, you become part of the state's only professional association for companies that have located substantial resources and personnel in Oklahoma, even though the company may be headquartered elsewhere. Together, we advocate for policies that serve businesses operating in Oklahoma.

Member Benefits

Our membership services include:

- Unified messaging on issues that matter to our members
- Representation by legislative and communication advocates at the state capitol
- Access to exclusive information that benefits and protects member investments in Oklahoma
- Networking opportunities with other businesses operating in Oklahoma
- Continuing education, advocacy training and intelligence reports
- Member highlights on social media and in our newsletter

Heidi Katz
HNTB

“Open for Business Oklahoma has helped HNTB to develop stronger relationships with our Oklahoma partners and given us an opportunity to participate in the legislative process with a united voice to encourage Oklahoma to be open for business.”

James Bryan
Kimley Horn

“Being part of OFBO has made me hyper-aware of everything going on at the state level that impacts our ability to work in and serve the communities and citizens of Oklahoma.”

Scott Barrett
Halff Associates, Inc.

“OFBO unites its members to preserve the historically successful open business environment in Oklahoma. They monitor legislative and business activity, promote fairness, quality and integrity in the conduct and performance of state and local business while creating jobs for Oklahomans.”
